Q1A) Read the passage given below :

(10)

Have I your permission to put it into this mortar and pound it to pieces? He asked savagely. The Quick Man nodded and smiled. The conjuror threw the watch into the mortar and grasped a sledge hammer from the table. There was a sound of violent smashing
"His-slipped-it-up-his-sleeve," whispered the Quick Man.
"Now, Sir." continued the conjuror, will you allow me to take your handkerchief and punch holes in it? Thank you. You see, Ladies and Gentlemen,
There is no deception, the holes are visible to the eye.
The face of the Quick Man beamed. This time the real mystery of the thing fascinated him. "And now, Sir, will you kindly pass me your silk hat and allow me to dance on it? Thank you." The conjuror made some movements with his feet and exhibited the hat, crushed beyond recognition.
"And will you now Sir, take off your shirt collar and permit me to burn it in the candle? Thank you, Sir, and will you allow me to smash your spectacles for you with my hammer? Thank you.

Q1B) Read the following poem given below:

(10)

Whose woods these are I Think I Know
His House is in the village
He will not see me stopping here

To watch his woods filled up with snow.
My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farm-house near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.
He gives his harness bells a shake,
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep,
Of easy wind and downy flake.
The woods are lovely, dark and deep.
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep, And miles to go before I sleep.
